Mayor Lauds 5 Aldermen, Scores Others

Patience Lost Over Bad Roads
Says Fumbling Is Tying His Hands, Punishing Public

Fumbling' Tries Patience
Mayor Stang indicated that his efforts to work with the council have been futile.

"Apparently the policy of 'turning the other cheek' only encourages certain individuals to think that there is no end to my patience. This fumbling around with your welfare has brought that patience to an end."

The mayor, attending a three-day session of the New York State Conference of Mayors which opened today in Syracuse, in a statement issued from his office praised five Republican aldermen who supported his street-repair bid while the action of the others, he said, "did not come as any great surprise to me."

Fumbling' Tries Patience

Mayor Stang indicated that his efforts to work with the council have been futile.

"Apparently the policy of 'turning the other cheek' only encourages certain individuals to think that there is no end to my patience. This fumbling around with your welfare has brought that patience to an end."

The mayor said he has been rebuffed "on almost every issue, because of the insistence of a few, the Common Council has sought to tie my hands."

The mayor's statement follows:

To Alderman Mayes, Keyser, Norton, Davis and McArdle, my thanks for their consideration of the people of this city in supporting my recent request for $25,000 for street resurfacing. The action of the rest of the aldermen did not come as any great surprise to me.

For the past three and one-half years I have done everything in my power to work with this council. In the interest of maintaining some semblance of order in city government I have refrained from commenting to any great extent on the actions of some of the aldermen. This has not been easy on those repeated occasions when I and my administration have been subjected to unfounded attacks on the council floor.

Apparently the policy of "turning the other cheek" only encourages certain individuals to think that there is no end to my patience. This fumbling around with your welfare has brought that patience to an end."

Mishaps Reported Over Sunday

Kerhonkson Boy Dies As Car Veers on Road

During the weekend an 11-year-old Kerhonkson boy was killed when struck by a car, an Ardena man was taken to Kingston Hospital in critical condition and a 19-year-old Newburgh girl and her parents were beaten up in their home by a handsome unidentified young assailant.

Man in Wheelchair Hit

A woman was taken to Kingston Hospital as the result of a curious Thruway mishap Saturday near New Paltz, a 78-year-old man pushing himself in a wheelchair along the Ulsterville road near Pine Bush suffered minor injuries when the chair was struck by a car, the Accord Fire Department was called out when the side of a house in Pataukunk caught fire and a Bronx man was arrested for driving his car back and forth across a Kerhonkson lawn.

The boy, Stanley Gockel, was killed about 9:50 a. m. Sunday as he stood in a driveway holding his bicycle on the Pataukunk road near Kerhonkson about four-tenths of a mile west of Route 209, it was reported by Ellenville state police.

Falls on Curve

Troopers said he was struck by a 1956 sedan operated by Mildred DiPasqua, 46, of the Bronx. The car, traveling east, failed to negotiate a sharp left curve, went off the south shoulder, veered across the highway and struck the boy standing on the north side of the road, according to Trooper James Loeven, M. J. Mahoney and J. S. Metzer. Dr. Edmund Gellert of Kerhonkson, coroner's physician, pronounced the child dead at the scene. Dr. Gellert issued a verdict of accidental death due to internal injuries and lacerations of the body. The body was taken to Humiston Funeral Home, Kerhonkson.

Ardona Man Critical

Critical at Kingston Hospital today was William Hoffman, 43, of Ardena, whose 1949 sedan left Route 32 a half mile south of New Paltz early Sunday morning and smashed head-on into a tree.

Troopers David Wachtel and Paul Mitchell of the Highland state police reported that Hoffman was proceeding south when his car went out of control, left the west shoulder and hit a tree.

He was taken to Kingston Hospital by ambulance with a compound fracture of the jaw, a fractured left leg, head injuries and internal injuries. Time of the mishap was listed as 12:45 a. m.

Jordan Moves to Close Her Embassy in Cairo

Amman, June 17 (AP)—Jordan's strained relations with Egypt widened further today as she moved to close her embassy in Cairo.

The latest move in the mounting feud between Jordan and the Egyptian-Syrian alliance threatened to dissolve what little remains of the Arab unity proclaimed in Cairo four months ago by Egyptian President Nasser, Syrian President Shukri Kuwatly, and King Hussein of Jordan and Saudi of Saudi Arabia.

Announcing yesterday that the embassy was being closed, Jordan Foreign Minister Samir Rifai asserted this did not mean breaking "political relations" with Nasser's government. But he acknowledged that all employees were being recalled.

Egyptian officials in Cairo kept silent whether Egypt would retaliate by closing her embassy in Amman. It was considered significant Egypt's new envoy to Amman has not taken up his post as scheduled a month ago.

The controlled Egyptian press made plain, however, King Hussein's rift with Nasser would cost him Egypt's share of the annual $36-million-dollar Arab subsidy promised him when Jordan broke her defense pact with Britain.

Syria already has made known she is renegeing on her share of the deal. Only King Saud of Saudi Arabia has stood by the agreement. Saudi Arabia and Egypt each promised to pay Jordan 14 million dollars, Syria agreed to pay 8 million.

Informed quarters predicted oil-rich, pro-Western Iraq will grant Jordan aid to compensate for Syria's share. The United States already has paid Hussein half the 10 million dollars it promised him after he ousted leftist, pro-Egyptian leaders from his government in the spring.

Commenting of the Arab aid agreement, the newspaper Al Massaa said the money had been pledged "to help Jordan free itself from imperialism and stick to a policy of positive neutralism."

announced yesterday that the basic real estate tax rate in the city for the 1957-58 fiscal year is expected to drop three cents from the current $4.02 to $3.99, based on figures made public today by Comptroller Lawrence E. Gerosa.

The drop in the levy per $100 of assessed valuation would be the first in 12 years.

Gerosa's report on estimated general fund revenues for the fiscal year starting July 1 was submitted to the City Council. The council will set the tax rate.

The comptroller estimated total general fund revenues for the new fiscal year at $647,500,000. (Continued on Page 6, Col. 8)

Real Estate Basic Tax Rate May Drop Three Cents in N. Y.

The fund represents fees and taxes levied by the city exclusive of real estate taxes and is approximately $7,400,000 more than was estimated last February. The increase was explained as due in part to a net rise of $3,800,000 in the $49,700,000 estimated cash carry-over expected next year.

The rise in the revenues since last February reflected better business conditions in the city, according to Gerosa, who said sales taxes in that period were $2,500,000 higher than expected and business produced $3,100,000 additional revenues.

Port Ewen Bank Approved

Rondout National Will Build at Main, B'way

Rondout National Bank, 635 Broadway, today announced it has received approval from the Comptroller of Currency, Washington, D. C. to establish a branch at the corner of Main street and Broadway, Port Ewen.

Announcement of the approval was made by James A. Dwyer, president, who noted that establishment of a branch there will mark the first banking service for the residents of Port Ewen.

The architect's plans for the building have been submitted and construction of the new building is expected to start in the near future with the opening planned in the fall, Mr. Dwyer said.

Complete Services

The new building will include "complete banking services," Mr. Dwyer said, and will feature a drive-in window and customer parking lot.

Establishment of the Port Ewen branch marks the second time within four years that the Rondout National will have expanded its facilities.

The bank moved to its present location at 635 Broadway in June, 1953. It was formerly located at 22 East Strand.

Notes Rapid Growth

Mr. Dwyer said the Port Ewen branch would be established to "better serve present residents there and new residents who are moving in all the time." He noted that the Port Ewen area is "growing fast and we have faith in its future."

Other officers of the Rondout National include Irving L. Eyles, executive vice president; James J. Ruea, cashier and John F. Wrinatt, assistant cashier.

Chairman Byrd Deems Inflation Major Problem

Washington, June 17 (AP)—Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) says he considers inflation the major problem disturbing the Senate Finance Committee as it prepares to launch a sweeping inquiry into the nation's fiscal condition.

Byrd, the committee chairman, added that he thought it "very difficult to account" for the cost-of-living jump over the past months.

"We have no war on, and we have no deficit spending on," he said yesterday in a television interview for a New Orleans station.

Heat to Last All Week, Prediction for State

The lawmaker said his committee's study, starting tomorrow, is expected to last several months and will be the most comprehensive economic investigation since 1908, when a commission headed by Sen. Nelson Aldrich (R-R.I.), made a broad monetary probe.

Although he listed inflation as were one of the reasons for delay in filling the $19,500-a-year thruway authority chairmanship.

Replies to a question on the program, Harriman said any implication that a row among politicians was holding up the appointment was "rather silly."

The Democratic governor said he had made it clear to Democratic State Chairman Michael H. Prendergast of Haverstraw and Democratic National Committeeman Carmine G. DeSapio of New York city that he wants the chairman to be an upstate man. Neither man questioned this, Harriman added.

Asked about the thruway's financial condition, he said he has been told that income from the main New York city-Buffalo section is up to expected levels and that business this year is 19 percent better than last year.

Harriman said his only criticism of the thruway authority was the delay in getting the spur to New England finished, because this will aid business over the Tappan Zee Bridge crossing the Hudson river.

Harriman told newsmen after the program that his hope that Appleby would change his mind

30,000 Watch Shrine Parade of 5,000 Men

Jamestown, N. Y., June 17 (AP) — Shriners from western New York and northwestern Pennsylvania took over this city Saturday for the first joint meeting of the Zem Zem Temple of Erie, Pa., and the Ismailia Temple of Buffalo.

A two-hour parade by the more than 5,000 Shriners was witnessed by an estimated 30,000 persons.

At ceremonies later in the day 289 men were initiated into the Buffalo Temple and 202 in the Erie Temple.

The Shriners met here also to honor Don W. Castle of Jamestown, the first potentate of Ismailia Shrine from this city in 80 years.

Repentant Forger Dies After Life Devoted to Needy

New York, June 17 (AP) — The changed life of a swindler turned philanthropist has ended.

Moses Turman, 60, died yesterday in Mount Sinai Hospital after a month's illness.

Turman was sent to Sing Sing prison in 1925 for forgery. He was accused of pyramidizing a $100 loan into a debt of almost two million dollars. His manipulations earned him the titles of "inverse financial wizard" and "would-be Napoleon of finance."

Makes New Start

Pardoned in 1933, Turman left prison determined to start a second life and repay the debt against him.

He became a partner in an office equipment firm. As the company prospered, he rose to vice president. Turman prospered, too, and began repaying his debts.

He helped found the National Office Furniture Assn. and served as the group's first president.

Turman was later credited with repaying virtually all the money lost as a result of his manipulations.

And he poured out more money in philanthropic projects.

Devoted Self to Needy

He became a fund raiser for the Hudson Guild, one of the best known settlement houses in New York city. Associates said his work may have prevented many children from entering lives of crime.

Turman joined the United Jewish Appeal at its formation and plunged whole-heartedly into the agency's work of assisting needy Jews throughout the world.

Through good works he was able to live down his notorious past.

"The UJA never knew of his background," Henry Bernstein, executive vice president of the New York UJA, said yesterday. "He did a wonderful job for us over many years. All we can say about him is good."

Leading Brewer Dies

Elmira, N. Y., June 17 (AP) — Funeral services will be held here Wednesday morning for John J. Kingston Jr., leading New York state brewer. Kingston died at his home yesterday following a heart attack. He was 61. He was executive vice president of the Hornell Brewing Co. of Hornell and was secretary-treasurer of Hornell Beers Inc., of Buffalo.

HUMPHREY AND MELLON

Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey, who has announced his retirement, is easily President Eisenhower's most acclaimed cabinet officer. One of the nation's leading industrialists, he has been more respected in the business world than any 20th century holder of his position except one.

That one was Andrew W. Mellon, who served under Presidents Harding, Coolidge and Hoover. In the prosperous days of the 1920's, business was our most admired institution; Mellon, reputedly the richest man in the United States, had prestige beyond many Presidents.

Had Mellon resigned in 1929, his glory would have been undimmed. But he continued during the first two years of the depression, and apparently had no helpful suggestions. Former President Hoover's memoirs state that Mellon wanted to liquidate everybody—farmers, labor, small business—and then start again from scratch, with presumably a few rich survivors owning the country. This philosophy was too much for Hoover. That may be why he named Mellon ambassador to Great Britain.

Humphrey did not plan to stay long when he entered the cabinet. Great business opportunities are said to await him. Mellon's advice was never widely sought after his retirement from office. Humphrey's case may well be different.

CASE OF NERVES

It is of course, a foregone conclusion that a President who has had a heart attack and a serious abdominal operation and is 66 years old is going to attract nervous attention every time he coughs.

Not surprisingly, therefore, interest riveted quickly on Mr. Eisenhower when he turned up with a stomach upset after a rather poor night. All this is quite reasonable, particularly in light of the fact his two more serious ailments had first been diagnosed as mere stomach upsets.

But a good many people nevertheless seemed to be a little trigger happy. Words which stir alarm crept into print before there was any sign they were justified. Some were used long after it was apparent they were not.

A visitor from beyond our borders would have been convinced Ike had been knocked down hard and had come back from death's door.

The extreme stuff looked pretty silly when he walked into his office the morning after his day's layoff.

The concern over the President's health is, naturally, automatic. But we can show that interest fully and still keep our shirts on.

HE LAUGHS TO LIVE

Dr. C. Ward Crampton, eminent New York physician who has specialized in promoting longevity, is retiring at 80 but not to a state of inactivity. He and his wife are moving to Coral Gables, Fla., where he will continue his studies into the lengthening of human life.

He advises people who wish to live longer to keep active, laugh often and wholeheartedly. Laughter he regards as a potential natural tonic which enlivens and exercises the vital region around the diaphragm. What is rather unpoetically termed a belly laugh is vastly more stimulating than a mere chuckle, according to statements made by Dr. Crampton in a recent interview.

He also tells older folk to keep interested in what's going on and to avoid sleeping too much simply because they have nothing else to do. He asserts that with proper care a person's life span should now be anywhere from 100 to 120 years. If they're years filled with laughter, that would be something to look forward to.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

WHY HAVE A LAW?

The Securities Exchange Act was passed to prevent the unconscionable conduct which brought on the 1929 stock market failure from ever happening again. It may have been too great an ambition, as clever minds will always find a way to get around a law and they can always hire lawyers and accountants to aid and abet them. The Securities and Exchange Commission, generally referred to as SEC, does not have the appropriations or staff to police the entire business world and only catches up with transactions that have become notorious. If the public is swindled there is really little to do about it.

In a letter to Senator James O. Eastland, J. Sinclair Armstrong, who in April headed SEC but is now in a more comfortable spot in the Navy, wrote:

"Swiss trusts and similar financial institutions and devices have created a serious problem for the Commission in the enforcement of a number of the provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The problem arises from the fact that, as you realize, under the laws and customs of Switzerland, Swiss banks and similar institutions do not disclose the names of the persons for whom they are acting. Similar problems arise in connection with American securities held in the names of banks, brokers, or other institutions in other foreign countries, since such institutions are not subject to the jurisdiction of this Commission and there is no way in which we can require them to disclose the identities of their principals if they do not choose to, or are under instructions from their principals not to do so."

But the fact is that thousands of dollars a day are deposited in American banks to be transferred immediately to numbered accounts in Switzerland or elsewhere. The assumption was, until investigation proved it untrue, that the depositor left his name and address. But it has been established that he may leave a fictitious name and address. Actually, the depositor ceases to exist the moment he deposits the money in a perfectly reputable bank in any American city to be transferred to a numbered account in Switzerland or elsewhere. The American bank transfers the money. The alien bank knows who X98 is and has no interest in the fictitious name of the depositor. Thus, a tax evasion may be practised and all trace of the evader has been removed.

Clever! Of course, it is clever. This transaction involves three minds—the owner of the money, a lawyer, and an accountant. But there is no evidence and there is not any agency of government which has any means to discover what has happened and how much money is being siphoned out of the United States and for what reason.

Armstrong said:

"...Inability to ascertain the identity of the beneficial owners of securities of American corporations held by various foreign financial institutions makes it difficult, in some cases, to determine whether or not persons in fact subject to the requirements of Section 16 (a) are complying with these requirements."

Section 16 (a) is important because it means that the beneficial owner of more than 10 per cent of any class of any equity security sold in any American exchange and every officer and director of the issuer of such a security must file a record of his holdings. But suppose the holding is by a Swiss Bank or an anonymous personage in Europe or Nassau or Canada, how does the law apply? In a word, a whole set of devices have been developed, the object of which is to violate the law without penalty. And the devices all work well.

In fact, studies show that about 10 per cent of the shares of publicly held corporations in the United States are registered in the names of nominees, that an additional 10 per cent are registered in the names of brokers and dealers, and about 15 per cent more are held in the names of fiduciaries which are impersonal institutions. So who are the beneficial owners? In this 35 per cent may rest the control of a public company. But who are they? And are they the same individual or group hiding behind a fictitious device?

This is a very serious matter, as it can affect the national defense and it may influence depressed conditions during an inflationary period. (Copyright, 1957, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington, (NEA) — Maj. John Eisenhower, the President's son, has a promotion at the White House where he is temporarily assigned while switching army jobs from nearby Ft. Belvoir to the Pentagon.

Couple of years ago when he spent most of his time reading and sorting mail. Now he has a more important post working with Col. A. J. Goodpaster, the White House staff secretary.

John and his wife Barbara are also busy house-hunting. Mrs. Eisenhower offered to let them move into the White House, but John said no. They're looking for a house close to the Executive Mansion, which is also an easy shot to the Pentagon for him in the morning.

LABOR LEADER John L. Lewis is going to start getting spiritual nourishment with his meals at the Sheraton-Carleton dining room. His favorite waiter, Emil Christensen, who has been there for 30 years, has just been ordained a minister in the Churches of God.

In one corner of the kitchen

E-mail has set up a pulpit and holds a 10-minute service for the help before meals.

TO CATCH the real depth of the animosity between Israel and the Arab states you should have at the speaker's table at the Press Club the other noon when James Richards reported on his presidential mission to the Middle East.

All the ambassadors from the Arab states who were there gave Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban shoulders cold enough to freeze a can of beans. Two Press Club members had to sit on either side of Eban because the Arabs refused to sit next to him.

Eban was just as aloof.

VISITING Pakistan editor Umar Farooqi had some nice things to say about America and Americans. And such sentiments among foreigners are hard to find these days. He'd just come from a 30-day visit to Communist China.

"Everything in China was gloomy, dull and depressing," he reported. "But here in America I find general happiness, great gaiety, and friendship from everyone."

SICKEST GUYS in town are the State Department protocol experts who worked out the details of the canceled visit of French President Rene Coty. No visit had ever been planned down to such minute detail, it is claimed.

The cook at the presidential guest house had a list of his favorite late snacks, for example. Every menu for every breakfast, lunch and dinner had been laid down. All the toasts which would be given for him by U. S. officials had been written and approved. His favorite wines had been ordered.

Engineering Check On Schools to Start

Ithaca, June 17 (AP)—A $40,000 study of the research effectiveness of American engineering schools will be carried on this summer.

The project, to be launched near the end of this month by the American Society for Engineering Education, was described today by Robert H. Ramsey, survey director of the study.

Ramsey told the opening session of the society's annual meeting that the results of the study "will show the capabilities of our engineering institutions to contribute new fundamental knowledge on which future engineering achievements must be based, and equipment and facility needs."

The survey has been in the planning and organization stage for eight months.

During the coming summer, eight interviewers will canvass 108 accredited engineering schools.

CLOSE QUARTERS—Pilot James Dudzinski received only a few scratches when he landed his light plane in this 30-by-50-foot back yard after developing engine trouble over Detroit. Only the nose and undercarriage of the plane were damaged. Dudzinski, a 37-year-old World War II Air Force veteran, said the tiny yard was his second choice for a landing. His first choice, a playground, was crowded with children.

Delaware County Seat Sets Parade For Armed Forces

"The biggest parade ever to be held in this part of New York state," is scheduled Sept. 7 and 8 at Legion Park, Delhi, county seat of Delaware, it was announced today by H. Tietbohl, general chairman.

A four hour demonstration will be staged in honor of the nation's servicemen, opening the local American Legion Post, No. 190, two day show, "Armed Forces on Parade."

5,000 Letters Mailed

According to Mr. Tietbohl more than 5,000 letters have been mailed by Raymond Secord, in charge of the parade, announcing the event and inviting all to participate.

At present developments indicate that the army, navy, air force, marine corps, coast guard, national guard, and civilian defense departments are going "all out" to put on a show that the 40,000 expected spectators will never forget, he said. The sponsors have set the parade as "A Civilian Tribute to our Armed Forces."

Parade registrations are to be filed with Mr. Secord, parade chairman, not later than June 15. Registration fees will admit participants to the legion grounds. Several prizes are to be awarded in a number of categories including Hobbyists, Sportsmen's Organizations, Unique individual entrants, amateur autos, and others.

Step-off at 10 A.M.

The only servicemen to appear in the parade scheduled to start at 10 a. m., Saturday, Sept. 7, will be one battalion of the National Guard (Oneonta, Walton and Binghamton). They will not be competing for awards.

Governor Averell Harriman and a group of notable guests who are expected to attend the event, will occupy the reviewing stand at Courthouse Square and will serve as judges. Among those expected in addition to Governor Harriman, are Representative Katherine St. George, Senator Irving Ives, National and State Commanders of the American Legion, and secretaries of the various services.

Transfer Bid Easy to Master

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

As a result of my first series of articles on the Jacoby transfer bid there have been so many requests for further information that I am going to devote this week to it also.

The JTB is used in responding to the opening no-trump and while it appears complicated it really is very simple provided, of course, that both partners understand it.

In the JTB the response of two clubs is the normal Stayman response and asks for a major suit if the no-trump bidder holds one. The two diamond, heart and spade response are all transfer bids and guaranteed at least five cards in the next higher suit. Thus two diamonds shows at least five hearts, two hearts at least five spades, two spades at least five clubs and three clubs at least five diamonds.

The no-trump bidder must bid the transfer suit irrespective of his own distribution, whereupon the responder makes his appropriate rebid.

Today's hand shows the transfer bid at work. North wanted to play four spades and his two heart bid was the JTB. South rebid to two spades as demanded whereupon North raised to game.

Coming World Force

Nuclear energy is probably the coming world force. What is at the base of this power? Research chemistry. Some of the most brilliant minds in this field are today charting a course that in the next thousand years will make the world a better place physically in which to live.

I doubt if there is a better growing industry than chemistry. The chemical stocks are quality equities. A composite investment in the stocks of the four corporations named in this article would yield around 3 per cent. Almost always, they sell to produce a relatively small return.

Unquestionably, the chemical industry faces a fabulous future. And investors seeking a fair return with assured growth should own some chemical shares.

50 Dead,

Saturday night's violence was touched off by persistent rumors that Fignole had been executed.

Eight Fires Set

The mob set fires to eight buildings. They stoned the Oliphant Hotel where some North American tourists were staying. No Americans were injured.

Groups of workers stood atop buildings in the slum quarter, hurling stones on police and army patrols. Troops and police retaliated with sprays of machinegun fire into the crowds and the slum buildings.

Travelers also reported angry demonstrators in market places in Cap Haitien, the main city in the north, and a "panic" in Jacmel in southern Haiti.

In Port au Prince, police and troops fired on demonstrators in the slum quarter near the docks while crowds of people huddled together inside totally dark ramshackle huts, wailing and crying. The weird sounds in the teeming slum were like the cries at voodoo rites in the jungle.

Brig. Gen. Antonio Kebreau, head of the three-man junta, expressed sorrow at the loss of life in quelling the disorder but said the army would use whatever means were necessary to maintain order.

The deaths fanned fierce flames of resentment among Fignole's supporters and cries for revenge against the army.

Financial and Commercial

New York, June 17 (AP)—Steel showed some improvement but coppers were off as the stock market moved irregularly higher in moderate trading early this afternoon.

Leading issues gained from fractions to around a point while there were many losers in about the same range. The market's patchy trend to the upside was displayed at the start and remained the same in later dealings.

There was action among specialties, some of which made sizable gains to new highs.

Coppers were depressed by news of falling prices for copper in world markets. Steels, however, had the benefit of optimistic reports that the automotive industry would increase its buying of steel in the next month or two.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 40 cents to $186.50, a shade past the latest 1957 closing high reached last Friday. The industrials were up $1.10, the rails up 30 cents and the utilities were down 10 cents.

On the American Stock Exchange prices were mixed in fairly active trading.

Corporate bonds declined narrowly in quiet trading.

U. S. government bonds settled back to new lows for the year in dull trading over the week.

Savings and Loan Association of Kingston

267 Wall Street

New York (AP)—Frank Loesser, one of Broadway and Hollywood's busiest composer-lyricists, is a very incorporated man. The head of the Frank Music Corp., Frank Distributing Corp., and Frank Publishing Corp., has now set up Frank Productions Inc., for staging a musical "When in Rome." The company insists there has been no decision yet on whether Loesser or someone else will be assigned to do the tunes and words.

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME (Registered U. S. Patent Office)By JIMMY HATLO*Court Revision Is Not Needed Says Judges' Assembly

Alexandria Bay, N. Y., June 17 (AP)—The State Assn. of County Court judges has called for public support in its fight against proposed statewide reorganization of the courts and provisions of the new youth court act.

The court revision would impose a "tremendous tax burden" and is not needed upstate, the association president, Judge Frank J. Kronenberg of Niagara county, said yesterday.

He said the calendar congestion cited by sponsors as one of the principal arguments for reorganization "does not exist" in upstate counties.

Two special association committees, concluding a two-day session here yesterday, said that both the youth court act and the court reorganization should apply only to New York city.

The 1957 Legislature postponed to next April 1. The effective date of the youth court act. The act was originally scheduled to become effective last Feb. 1. Opponents have criticized particularly its provisions for secrecy and special courts.

A proposed constitutional amendment advocated by the temporary state commission on the courts died in legislative committee at the last regular session.

Judges Chandler S. Knight of Montgomery county and Archibald C. Wemple of Schenectady county are joint chairmen of the association's committee on the youth court. Judge Arthur C. Aulis of Fulton county is head of the court revision committee.

Heaven Subject Of Graeham, 450 'Sign for Christ'

New York, June 17 (AP)—No more death, no more sin, no more sorrow and no more night.

That's what the Bible says we may expect in heaven, Evangelist Billy Graham told 16,000 persons in Madison Square Garden last night.

Dempsey Introduced

In the audience was Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight boxing champion.

Graham introduced Dempsey because he is a sports figure and the Garden ordinarily is associated with sporting events. Ordinarily the evangelist does not introduce celebrities attending his services.

Dempsey, none of whose fights was in the present Garden, drew polite applause from the throng.

Graham subject was "heaven" and his text Job 14:14—"If a man dies shall he live again?"

He said that if he could show the audience what God has prepared for those who love him there would be a stampede to receive Christ."

And, he added, if he could show what awaits the others, he wouldn't be able to hold them back from joining the stampede.

Says It's Certainty

"All through the Bible we find a certainty regarding a future place called heaven," he said.

"The Bible teaches there are two ways of life—the broad way which ends in destruction and hell and the narrow way which ends in heaven. Which road are you on?"

Last night's audience increased to 585,500 the number who have heard Graham in the Garden since the meetings opened May 15.

"Decisions for Christ" last night totaled 450, bringing the total to 19,142.

Father of Three Is Held for Wife's Death

Buffalo, N. Y., June 17 (AP)—A 37-year-old father of three children faces arraignment today on a charge of first degree murder in the fatal stabbing of his estranged wife Saturday.

Henry Grygas, a former displaced person from Poland, was accused of killing his wife, 26, during a quarrel at her home. The woman was expecting her fourth child in about four months.

The couple came to this country as displaced persons in 1952.

Grygas, a welder, told police that he stabbed his wife twice with a large pocket knife after he had unsuccessfully sought a reconciliation.

Mrs. Grygas, stabbed in the chest and stomach, died about four hours later in a hospital.

Grygas told detectives that after the stabbing he made two unsuccessful attempts to take his own life.

The couple's three children, Anne, 6, Bertha, 5, and Peter, 4, were placed in the custody of the Children's Aid Society.

Police said the couple appeared in domestic relations court Saturday, where the husband was ordered to get out of the house and leave his wife alone.

Fund Report

New York (AP)—Taking care of sick and old needy members of the theatrical profession cost $363,000 during the year ended April 30, the Actors' Fund of America reports. The 75-year-old welfare organization said that during 1956-57 it handled 14,196 cases.

Democrats' Fight On Work Benefits Not Over, Leader

Seneca Falls, N. Y., June 17 (AP)—State Democratic Chairman Michael H. Prendergast says that the Democrats have not given up their fight to win legislative approval of Gov. Harriman's proposals on workmen's compensation and unemployment insurance.

"This fight is far from over," Prendergast told the annual dinner meeting of the Seneca County Democratic Committee Saturday night.

The state chairman also criticized what he called the "arrogant" Republican majority in the state Senate for again killing the telephone bill favored by the governor.

Prendergast declared that relatively few Republican votes were needed to win approval of Harriman bills.

"I give the Republicans fair warning we are going after these votes between now and the next session of the Legislature with the confidence that we can yet win a victory x x x"

Blames GOP

The "GOP masquerade is over," Prendergast said. The Republicans, he added, have "dropped the false front" and revealed themselves as the "chief exponents of the special interest philosophy x x x"

He said that only the force of public opinion can turn the Republicans "from zombies for big business into spokesmen for the people."

The Republican-controlled Legislature at its special session last week passed bills that would raise the maximum weekly benefits from $36 to $45 under workers' compensation and unemployment insurance.

Harriman favored the increases, but was opposed to other GOP provisions that would increase the jobless-pay tax on certain seasonal employers and provide for broader court review of compensation awards.

He is expected, therefore, to veto the bills.

Harriman also approved a bill that would have held down a 5½-million-dollar increase in rates sought by the New York Telephone Co.

The telephone bill was killed in the Senate but approved in the GOP-controlled Assembly. The legislative action again highlighted the split between Speaker Oswald D. Heck and Walter J. Mahoney, senate majority leader.

Prendergast said that Harriman needed 7 more Republican votes in the Senate and 8 more in the Assembly to pass his proposal for a straight increase in unemployment insurance benefits.

He said that the governor needed 7 more Republicans in the Senate and 13 in the Assembly to win passage of his workmen's compensation measure.

Queen Victoria gave a pair of gold opera glasses to the sharp shooting lady, Annie Oakley.

Air Theater

New York (AP)—Comes now the theatre in a balloon. Two summer theatre impresarios, working independently, have announced plans to utilize the air-house principle in future projects. Under the plan, a fabric structure is kept in position with a small amount of air pressure, instead of requiring the poles and supports of an old-fashioned carnival tent. Buildings sufficiently large to house 2,500 show fans are practical, say backers. It probably will be another year or so, however, before the first air theatre is erected.

Carpets Keep New Look

With proper care wall-to-wall carpeting will retain the new look.

Correct cleaning methods have seemingly been a mystery and controversial even to carpet manufacturers. After much research a product is on the market that cleans and fluffs up beat down carpet paths plus removal of spots thereby maintaining the new look. The textile engineer of a large carpet mill says — "it's the best we've found."

The product is Blue Lustre. It is easily applied with a long handle brush. One half gallon of Blue Lustre concentrate cleans three 9 x 12 rugs.

National Conference Planned for Youth

The National Conference of Synagogue Youth will hold its annual pilgrimage and conference this year from June 27 through June 30 in New York City.

Congregation Agudas Achim will be one of the participating synagogues. Sisterhood Agudas Achim and the Men's Club will jointly sponsor members of Agudas Achim Youth group, as well as teenagers whose parents or grandparents are members of the congregation.

Sponsorship includes defraying part of the cost of the four day event exclusive of transportation.

Parents of eligible youth are asked to contact the following before Thursday: Rabbi H. Z. Rappaport, Mrs. Jack Epstein, Mrs. Raphael Klein.

Program of activities in New York will include a City Hall reception with Mayor Robert Wagner; reception by the Israeli delegation to the United Nations at UN headquarters; visit to the historic cemetery of Jewish revolutionary war heroes; visit to historic Spanish and Portuguese Synagogue; Broadway play, "Diary of Anne Frank," and backstage visit; week-end trip to Pine View Hotel in Fallsburgh; election of National Synagogue Youth officers.

Gould of Antioch will confer the degree.

As an undergraduate Miss Strongin participated in Antioch's study-plus-work plan whereby students alternate classroom study with on-the-job experience.

Under this program she held jobs at the Mellon Foundation, Vassar College, Poughkeepsie; Highlander Folk School, Montague, N. C.; Travelers' Aid Society, New York; and William Filene's Sons, Boston.

Miss Strongin graduated from Kingston High School with the class of 1952.

Home Extension Service News

Mrs. John Carpenter of Kingston and Mrs. Robert Rognon of Modena attended a training school on Citizenship for county leaders on June 11, at Cornell University. Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Rognon represented the Home Demonstration Department of the Ulster County Extension Service. The topic of the day was, Do I Count As A Citizen in My Community? Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Rognon will conduct a training school for local leaders on the same subject at the Home Demonstration Department office on Wednesday, August 14.

Strawberries

Since June is dairy month and strawberries are in good supply, the Home Demonstration Department suggests this dessert: Strawberry Bavarian. Yield 8 servings — Pan 1½ quart mold or 8 dessert dishes. 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoon (1 envelope) gelatin, ½ cup sugar, ¼ cup milk, 1 quart fresh strawberries, 1 cup heavy cream, chilled, 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Heat the one cup of milk over moderate heat to just below boiling. Stir occasionally. Mix together the gelatin and sugar. Slowly add the hot milk, stirring until the gelatin and sugar are dissolved. Add the ¼ cup of cold milk. Chill until firm. To unmold, dip mold into warm water for about 1 minute, then invert on serving plate.

Nutrition notes: One serving of "Strawberry Bavarian" contains about 200 calories, which justifies its being called a dessert moderate in calories. One serving provides ½ the recommended daily allowance for ascorbic acid. The dairy products included in the recipe also contribute significant amounts of Vitamin A and calcium.

"Strawberry Bavarian" may be made in a 9-inch crumb crust or a pastry shell. However, the nutrients provided by the crust are largely calories.

On the basis of 8 servings, the crust would add about 125 calories, bringing the total to 325 calories per serving. If the pie were cut in sixths, the caloric value would jump to about 440.

Cool Fruit Drinks

Warm summer days call for cool refreshment. Milk-fruit drinks fill the bill. Children enjoy them and so do adults because of their thirst-quenching quality and their pick-up value. Rig up a milk bar and mix up these appetizing milk drinks: Milk Julep — 2-2½ cups of crushed peaches or berry juice, 3 cups of cold rich milk, ¾ teaspoon of lemon juice, if desired, enough sugar, syrup or jam to sweeten. Mix the fruit juice and milk together, sweeten and shake them well until all are blended smoothly; pour the liquid over ice-cubes in glasses and serve the drinks immediately.

Apricot Cooler — Yield: 2 servings. ¾ cup cold apricot nectar, 1 cup cold milk, 1 tablespoon sugar, ¼ teaspoon lemon juice. Combine ingredients and blend well. Pour into glasses and garnish with a sprig of fresh mint, if desired.

Nutrition notes: Each serving of "Apricot Cooler" provides the nutrients in about ½ cup of milk. Since apricots are rich in Vitamin A, the apricot nectar provides significant amounts of this nutrient.

Good Taste Today

CHILD'S NAME

FOR PARENTS' FRIENDS

Dear Mrs. Post: Our daughter is two and we would like to begin teaching her what to call friends and neighbors. Nine out of every ten people we know have their children (2 years and up) call us by first name. We are in our thirties and not considered old or old-fashioned, yet I think we should be shown a little more respect and be called Mr. and Mrs. Jones (or even Aunt Mary and Uncle John). Are we being too fussy in this way? If not, how can we politely tell these people (many of them good friends) what we wish to be called and what we want our daughter to call them? Shall we casually start our daughter saying "Jane" instead of "Jane?"

Answer: I agree with your sentiments, but think it would be less unfriendly to have your daughter call your best friends "Aunt Jane" or "Cousin Jane" instead of the rather chilling "Mrs. Smith," and by and by their children will probably address you in the same way.

Invited to a Shower

Dear Mrs. Post: My brother's fiancee's aunt has sent out invitations to a shower which she is giving for the bride-to-be. Guests were asked to reply by telephone. Several of our relatives have not responded. My brother is planning to call and ask them why they haven't answered. I think this is wrong.

Answer: You are quite right in thinking that your brother should not telephone them. After all, people are invited to a shower to bring presents and it is they who confer a favor by coming.

Sending Good Wishes

Dear Mrs. Post: When one receives an invitation to a wedding and one wishes only to send a card of good wishes, when should it be sent and to whom should it be addressed?

Answer: It would be best to addressee the card to Mr. and Mrs. and send it so that it arrives on their wedding day.

Is it improper to wear veils in the evening? This question is answered in leaflet E-18, "An Etiquette Test." This leaflet includes 35 questions and answers about everyday problems. Good Mothers Possess Fatherly Strength, Too

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

After Charles' father died, his mother grieved and grieved. As shock subsided, her resentment at death's arbitrary removal of her husband became resentment of all coercion. So she feared to put any on Charles.

If he wanted to delay bed-time, she let him. If he preferred playing to homework, she allowed it. If he wanted to change a college course in the middle of a term, she approved that.

But Charles, instead of appreciating this freedom, began to resent her for giving it to him. In school, when he was too tired to understand what his teacher was saying, he'd think, "Why didn't she make me go to bed on time last night?" When neglected homework ended in humiliating failure to get promoted, he blamed his mother for allowing the neglect.

Finally, when changing colleges lost him the degree he needed to get a job, anger at his mother made it almost impossible to be civil to her. For he'd seen that it had been selfishness, not love, which had left all control of impulse to a child who hadn't developed the strength to control it.

Now Charles has found a psychoanalyst who is helping him control the impulses that have been swaying him around like a weather-vane.

The psychoanalyst is a woman. Because a mother is a woman, she does not have to deny her child experience of discipline.

Farm Tour Off For Thursday, Seeking New Date

The Ulster county farm tour scheduled for Thursday of this week has been postponed.

In making this announcement today, Harrison Cornish, chairman of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce agricultural committee which is sponsoring the event, asked for suggestions from those interested as to a more convenient time when it could be rescheduled.

Considerable interest was shown in the tour but most of those heard from felt that they could not spend the full day on the trip. The possibility of having an afternoon-twilight tour will be considered.

Hunt's Circus Comes to Town, Two Shows Today

Today is circus day in Kingston, with Hunt Bros. three-ring circus showing at the Dietz Stadium lot, head of North Front street, this afternoon and tonight at 8 p.m.

The circus, largest traveling troupe on the road today is playing for the benefit of the Rip Van Winkle Council Boy Scout Camp Fund.

Led by Dean, 84

Charley Hunt's motorized organization pulled into Kingston Sunday, with the 84 year old dean of American circus owners spending the day greeting his friends in the city from which he began his annual tours over 60 years ago.

The circus program is billed as a clean, 100 per cent circus attraction, with herds of performing elephants, wild animals, trapeze artists, and clowns.

A percentage of the income from advance sale of tickets and also general admission tickets sold at the grounds today will go into the funds of the local Boy Scout Council—to enlarge the facilities of Boy Scout Camp TriMount at East Jewett.

Contracts Approved

These contracts complete the allocation of power that New York state expects to draw from the huge power project being built in cooperation with the province of Ontario.

He started out with 240 gallons. Gluckmann has flown solo across the Atlantic three times.

Hollywood, June 17 (AP)—Gus Schilling, whose show business career embraced burlesque, Broadway and Hollywood, is dead of an apparent heart attack at 49. His body was discovered yesterday in his Hollywood apartment. A skinny fellow with rolling eyes and a nervous manner, Schilling won credits from such contrasting enterprises as Minsky's Burlesque House in New York and the movie version of Shakespeare's "Macbeth." In between,

Schilling appeared in Broadway hits such as "Hold Everything" and "Flying High."

Colonials Drop Opener, Play Saugerties Here Wednesday

Brooklyn Windsors Win Road Contest, 8-3

Manager Fred Davi's 1957 edition of Kingston Colonials dropped their New York-New Jersey League opener to the Brooklyn Windsors, 8 to 3, Sunday in the borough but are looking forward to the local opener Wednesday night against the Saugerties Dutchmen at Dietz Stadium.

An extra added attraction will be an appearance by Al Schacht, the famous Clown Prince of Baseball.

Manager Davi said he hoped to have Bruce Bechtold available for pitching. Clark Mains, who shut out Staatsburg Sunday is expected to pitch for the Dutchmen in the renewal of an ancient baseball rivalry.

Errors Prove Fatal

Rennie Giannuzzi and Big Jim Ferraro pitched a creditable seven hits against the Windsors but seven Colonial errors nullified their work.

The Colonials outhit the Windsors, 11-7, with every starter hitting safely at least once, but Otto Starks, the Windsor flinger, pulled out of several tight spots with a flashing strikeout ball. He whiffed sixteen.

One of the eleven Colonial hits was a long home run by Johnny Armstrong in the seventh inning. The Colonials picked up single tallies in the second and ninth innings. Don Ferraro and Armstrong had two hits each for the Colonials and Frank Secreto rapped a double.

A base clearing double by Starks highlighted a four-run splurge by the Windsors in the fifth inning.

Poughkeepsie Checked

The Windsors had scored an impressive 7-5 decision over the undefeated Poughkeepsie Elks in 12 torrid innings Saturday at Riverview Field.

Sunday results then created a three-way tie for first place among the Elks, Newburgh Jewels and Windsors, each with four victories and one defeat.

The Jewels knocked off Spring Valley, 8-2. New York Bullets took a 1-0 thriller from Nyack Saturday. The Welders checked Beacon Braves, 11-3, on Sunday.

Moore Ordered To Fight Anthony

Paris, June 16 (AP)—The World Committee on Professional Boxing today ordered Archie Moore to defend his light heavyweight championship against Tony Anthony by Aug. 30 or have the title declared vacant.

Meantime, the world committee confirmed the championship suspension against Moore already taken by the National Boxing Association.

Moore was given until July 7 to sign a contract for the fifth against Anthony. In case Moore deposes by official action, Anthony must meet Harold Johnson of the United States or Yolande Pompey, of the British West Indies, as quickly as possible for the vacant title. The winner of the first bout must meet the third challenger within 90 days.

Road Successes Boost Redbirds

Cards Aiming to Continue Winning Formula at Home

The Associated Press

Frank Lane's collection of the bought and bartered—plus Stan Musial—have proved themselves on the road. Now if these St. Louis Cardinals can adjust their appetites to home cooking, this might be a National League battle that's literally going to the Birds.

Cardinal teams have threatened before without winning since the league pennant last flew over the St. Louis ballyard in 1946, but this is a season with all the earmarks of a new order.

A 7-6, 8-4 doubleheader sweep of the nose-diving Dodgers at the Brook's stronghold yesterday—first time that's happened in at least eight years—boosted St. Louis into second place behind Milwaukee in the five-club NL race.

The double victory ended one of the most successful Cardinal eastern trips (11-2) since the early 40s and gave the club a road record of 24-10, a .706 pace.

The only item that has stopped St. Louis short of the top is a 7-13 show below the home folks.

Milwaukee, 1½ games upon the flying Redbirds, split its doubleheader with Philadelphia, winning the first 3-2 but losing the second 1-0 to Curt Simmons despite a one-hitter from Lew Burdette.

The "new look" New York Giants, with Don Mueller hitting a three-run pinch homer, dumped Cincinnati into third place, 4-3, and Chicago stopped Pittsburgh 4-1 in the first of two games at Forbes Field. The second fell victim to the Pennsylvania curfew with the clubs tied 4-4 after 6½ innings.

Sutherland and Stella combined for a one-hitter with the latter getting credit for the win. G. Thompson's firstinning homer and Cleveland won twice from Baltimore, 4-3 and 5-1.

Lightning Bolt Kills Three Golfers On Scranton Course

Scranton, Pa., June 17 (AP)—A single bolt of lightning killed three men yesterday and injured three others after rain drove them from a game of golf to the shelter of an oak tree.

Eleven doctors playing on the crowded Scranton Country Club course hurried to the scene. They found three golfers already dead. Another golfer and two caddies were burned severely and suffering shock from the bolt. The deputy coroner said the group's metal golf clubs served as conductors after the lightning struck the tree.

The dead were Dr. Horace D. Birchard, 60, Scranton, a dentist; Frederick DeWilde, 62, Clark's Summit, Pa., a co-owner of Pine Brooke Iron Works, Dunmore, Pa., and John W. Whitmore, 58, Scranton, an insurance executive.

Early today the other three men were reported in "fair condition" by Scranton State Hospital.

Middlecoff Dethroned

Mayer 'Can't Believe' National Open Victory

Toledo, Ohio, June 17 (AP)—America's new national Open golf king, 32-year-old "Adonis" Dick Mayer, was still in an "I can't believe it" dither today.

The St. Petersburg, Fla., pro has the features of a movie idol, the courteous manner of an old southern gentleman. He learned the rudiments of golf as a kid by batting a ball around a baseball diamond with a six-iron snatched from his dad's set. He left a Wall St. brokerage job in 1949 to turn professional.

Middlecoff Beaten

Yesterday he defeated two-time champion Cary Middlecoff by seven strokes—a record for such extra heats—in the "allergy playoff" for the big bauble over Interway club's hot and humid acres.

The big margin provided an anticlimactic finish to a record-breaking tournament, and the story of Middlecoff's collapse was as noteworthy as Mayer's triumph.

Mayer termed it the "allergy playoff" because he and Cary have been taking shots all week for various ailments. Middlecoff, who had two double bogies and finished nine over par, after shooting a pair of 68s for a record in the final rounds to get the deadlock, said he was "mentally exhausted."

Middlecoff Apologizes

The dethroned champion apologized for what he termed his poor play in the rather dull playoff, and with a grin said he was "geared for four rounds instead of five."

"I played like a 'chopper' all day. I guess I left all my golf right on the 18th green yesterday when I sank that birdie to tie."

The new king of the linksmen, hours after posting his 72 against Middlecoff's 79 over the par 70 course in 98-degree temperature, said "I'm numb, and I'll be that way for days."

Sign-Up Dates For Legion Nine

All players born after Sept. 1, 1939, are eligible. Players may sign at the Tommy Maines sport shop on Broadway and are requested to bring birth certificates.

The championship fight will be carried on ABC radio-TV.

Giambra Match

Joey Giambra, the Buffalo, N. Y. boxer who is fourth among Sugar Ray Robinson's contenders, will try for his tenth straight Friday at Syracuse, N. Y. against rugged Rory Calow.

Although Calhoun dropped a split decision to Joey Giardello at Cleveland, May 17, the White Plains, N. Y. boxer has lost only two of 29 starts. The other defeat was at the hands of Spider Webb in Chicago last August.

The 10-round will be carried on NBC radio-TV.

The Cornell varsity crew favored to win the Intercollegiate Regatta on June 22nd is made up of almost the same oarsmen who won the Regatta varsity race last year and in 1955 and the frosh race in 1954.

Area Forecast For This Week

Albany, N. Y., June 17 (AP) — The extended weather forecasts for New York state, prepared by the U. S. Weather Bureau, for the period from 7:30 p. m. today to 7:30 p. m. Saturday:

Eastern New York—Temperatures during the 5-day period. Monday evening through Saturday, will continue to average several degrees above normal, likely as much as 4 to 8 degrees above, not so warm at the beginning, another warm spell Thursday and Friday, then cooler again toward the weekend. Rainfall will be spotty, and average less than $\frac{1}{2}$ inch. Scattered thundershowers about Thursday or Friday will be the principal source of rainfall.

Temperature normals—normal daytime high temperatures for New York state now range in the upper 70's to lower 80's. Overnights lows are mostly in the 55 to 60 degree range.

Think it's Trick

London, June 17 (AP)—Some Britons think the headless, handless body found on Britain's south coast and believed to be that of missing Frogman Cmdr. Lionel (Buster) Crabbe may be a Russian imitation of a British wartime trick. Both the Labor Reynolds News and a reader's letter to the editor of the Independent Sunday Express took exception to the general belief that the body found June 9 is that of the frogman, last seen skin diving in Portsmouth harbor near the Soviet cruiser Ordononikidze 14 months before.
